Role of Parents in preparing their children for returning to schools

Hello Dear friends..

Hello Sweethearts:

Our friend students have returned back to their schools despite the (coronavirus) crisis, because the State's health system takes into account the utmost levels of public safety in order to reduce the possibility of infection among students according to the health conditions and precautions, with the help of parents, and with the psychological and physical support provided to students.

From here came your role, dear father, and dear mother to speak and converse with your children in a way that eliminates all their fears so that they feel that they are safe at their school, the importance of attending it, and the explanation of the safety measures which will be followed by the school to keep everyone safe.

The role of the family is also to provide their children with the safety supplies, to be keen on sterilizing the school personal belongings, and to prepare a program that is commensurate with the studying conditions through ensuring the early sleep of their children, providing them with healthy nutrition that reinforces their immune system by increasing the number of fruits and vegetables given to them in their diet, keeping them away from drinking soft and sugary drinks and replacing them with water, finding ways for activities enveloped in conversation and love, generating confidence and reassurance, spreading optimism, and letting them practice sports.

Salama Magazine appreciates the role of parents during this period in permanently protecting their children, wishing everyone a distinguished school year.

Top Scoop

"Pedestrian Safety" in the Medical Examination Centers

The cooperative relationships between Roads and Transport Authority, and the Ministry of Health yielded a new initiative under which an awareness-raising video for pedestrian safety is published in the medical examination centers, with the aim of reaching most of the examination centers' workers and visitors at the state level.

The Roads and Transport Authority had prepared an awareness-raising film, in cooperation with the Permanent Committee of Labor Affairs, which is concerned with guiding workers and pedestrians and with raising their awareness of how to avoid the trampling accidents, and includes the fundamental rules for safety when crossing the road or in the workplaces.

Sign Language Video on Salama App

A new addition to Salama Magazine App which is represented in two raising-awareness films for teaching children and the users of the application the sign language in order to encourage them to communicate with their peers from the motivational children.

Let's learn some sign language

Awareness-Raising Workshops for workers in Construction Companies

The Traffic Management organized raising-awareness workshops for workers in some of the construction companies in Dubai, including East Coast Contracting and Trading LLC, and Al Memzar Contracting LLC. The lectures, in which adherence to the health procedures were taken into account – focused on the safety of workers at the work areas and when crossing the street, and on the importance of adhering to the traffic

A Training Workshop in the International Modern Hospital

The male and female nurses in the International Modern Hospital benefited from the training workshop organized by the Traffic Safety section the aim on the important of training nurses on making mothers aware of using the child seat in the vehicle and of how to choose and install it. This workshop comes within the authority's initiative of training female and male nurses in the large hospitals on playing an awareness-raising role to encourage mothers to use the child seat in the vehicle.

Safe playing with bicycle at Dubai Public Library

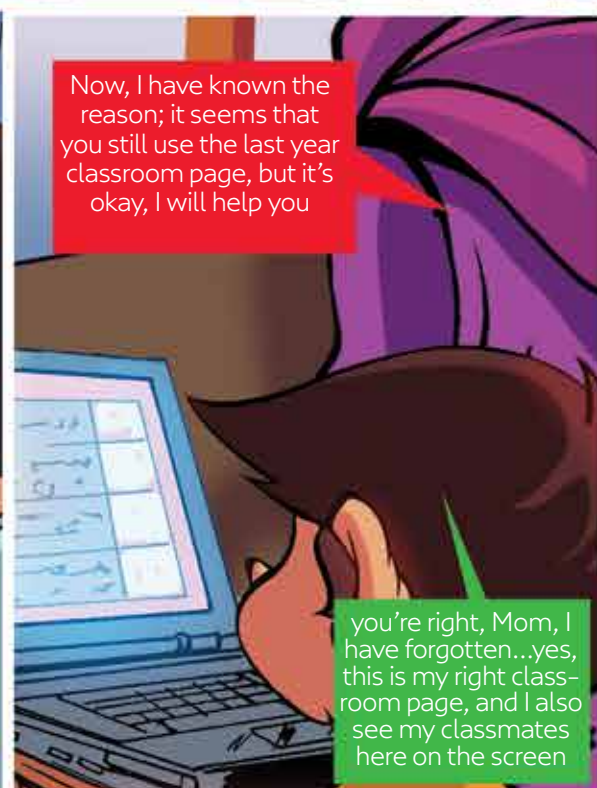

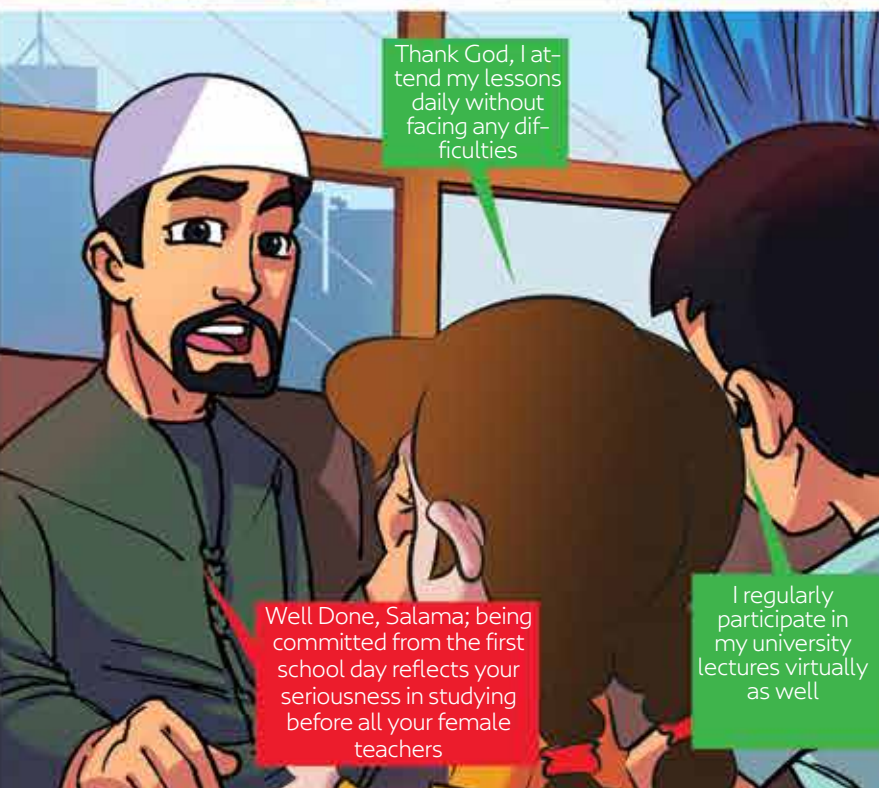

The Traffic Management, represented in the Traffic Safety Department, participated in the (Creative Summer Camp) Program organized by Dubai public libraries, where children interacted with the various learning sessions of (Your Safe Playing with Your Bicycle) Workshop, they also participated with enthusiasm during a question and answer learning session around the Roads and Transport Authority's signboards, and they watched a video clip showing the correct steps of riding bicycles in their designated places, away from the main streets noise and crowd.

Welcome my school

Don't worry; the school administration keeps on providing us with any change via (Telegram) and (WhatsApp)

In addition to phone calling as well; the specialist teacher has called me to tell me that I should visit your school to bring the books and the school uniform

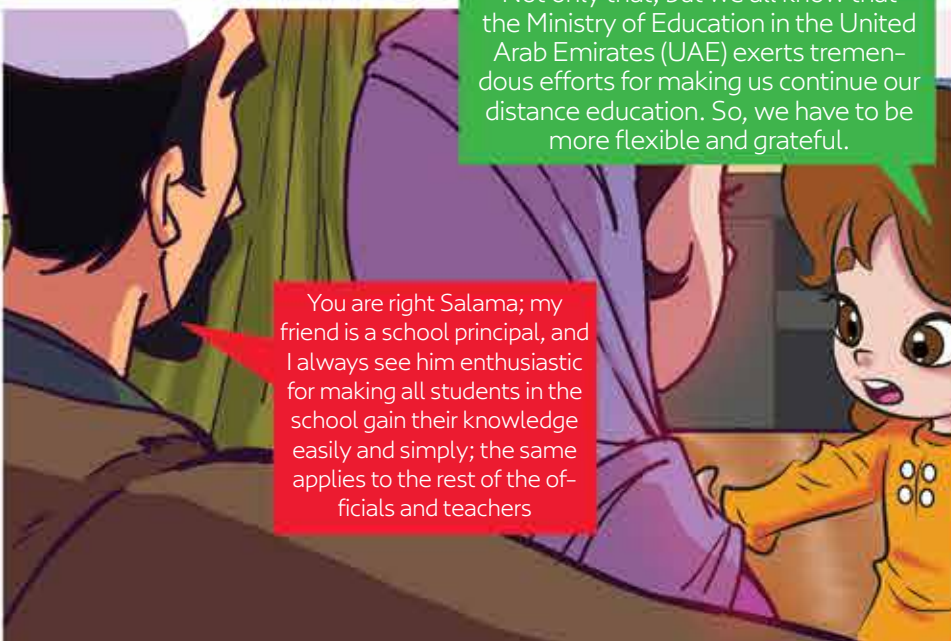

School Uniform! Why I shall wear the uniform while I receive distance education from home?

because you are studying inside the classroom virtually, and you have to show your discipline and your respect for all the laws and directives of your school

Do you accept, Sweetheart, that your appearance seems untidy for your teachers and for the rest of your classmates?

No..No.. My classmates will laugh at me

Not only that, but we all know that the Ministry of Education in the United Arab Emirates (UAE) exerts tremendous efforts for making us continue our distance education. So, we have to be more flexible and grateful.

You are right Salama; my friend is a school principal, and I always see him enthusiastic for making all students in the school gain their knowledge easily and simply; the same applies to the rest of the officials and teachers

I have got an idea.. I will thank, with my classmates, every female teacher at the beginning of each lesson as an appreciation for her daily effort with us

That's the right speech

Beware of Bullying

the elder brother increased his bullying against his younger brother.

Do you accept his words, Dad? my brother is bullying and mocking me

Of course not...I don't accept this behavior...but he may be joking with you

No, this not a joke, I don't accept that at all, and he should apologize to me

Okay, you should also apologize to your friend Hamed

Oh, Hamed, my friend ... what is his involvement in this issue?

you have bullied him a lot, and he was upset over that... just as you hate being bullied by someone, you should not allow yourself also to bully any one

Sorry Brother, I didn't mean to offend you

Our intention was to explain to you how harsh your behavior with your friend Hamed

In the next morning, Ahmed apologized to his friend Hamed, and pledged to him that he wouldn't bully him again.

In the previous Issue ...

Nader explained to the boys the contents of the first aid kit and its importance on trips, and here they are preparing for going on a new adventure.

Ok, boys, let's set off now with our bicycles ...don't forget to wear the helmet, and keep your distance with each other

Let's go

Everyone decided to ride the bicycle in the morning tour...

Everyone set off steadily and confidently behind Nader... but as usual, there are those who like to mess around at the end of the row

Look, Hammoud... can you do what I am doing now?

yes of course, and even better than you...I will show you how I will go down that slope

Indeed, Hammoud set off recklessly... and the result was painful.

Ah, I will fall

pay attention, Hammoud

A Friend in Need is a Friend Indeed

How's he doing?

do you need any help?

thank you... I will distribute my time among looking after my kids, hospital and my home requirements

he is fine, but he must stay for a while in the hospital for observation and treatment till he recovers from the virus

what about your farm?

it needs care and follow-up; my husband used to take care of it, and I can't reconcile between following-up my children, my house, my husband and the
farm.

I wish him fast recovery....how we can help them in the absence of their father?

his wife told me they will manage, but only the farm they can't look after

well, I can take care of the farm; the trees and plants will fade
if no one gives them attention

how will you reconcile between your work and the farm?

don't worry... I will give my attention to that,
but don't tell them

the Bear began working in his friend's farm after a few days, the orange and lemon fruits began to ripen.

these fruits have been brought from your farm

What are you saying? How!

I have been looking after your farm and taking care of it throughout your absence thank you with all my heart for this great effort he used to follow up the farm every day and to maintain watering and cleaning times.

Thank God for your safety, my dear... I have brought for you orange and lemons to get vitamin C from them thank you my friend, you have reminded me of my farm.. I think the trees are now dead.

you were and you are still a loyal friend; you have taken care of my farm to the fullest don't forget my friend "A Friend in Need is a Friend Indeed"

The Eggplant Rings

hello, friends...our Dish today is The Eggplant Rings. For preparing it, we need (2 large pieces of eggplant, a carrot, chicken luncheon, cold pepper, onions, pepper, salt) at first, we cut the eggplant in the form of rings, then we make the rings empty of the pulp we cut the pulp of the eggplant and the rest of the ingredients into small pieces, then we add to them the pepper and the salt we put The Eggplant Rings inside the fryer afterwards, we spread the mixture on the rings, and stir it until it is well-cooked then we offer you the most delicious Dish.. Bon appetit
